By Gabriel Rios
from This Marauder's Midnight

A D A
I saw you walking Grand and Myrtle
D A
You had your sun burn on
E A
and your summer dress wrapped around you

A D A
Like Bambi's mom out in the meadow
D A
About to meddle
E A
and lay my black cross right upon you

D A
I lay it down down like it's my decree
A
though we both know that it's
B E
you over me
A
and we roll out skinny
D A skipping intro
D A
you know what i know
E A
About to lay down low with you

(INSTRUMENTAL) A- A A-

A D A
I make my entry through your shadow
D A
Your tail will rattle
D
The birds will scatter
A
and leave me with you

A D A
I know you must be someone's daughter

D A
Not about to bother
E A
coz you don't know that you're waiting for me
D A
No there's nothing's wrong with me
Just want you right here
B E
breathing next to me
A
And we roll out skinny
D A
skipping intro
D A
You know what I know
E A
About to lay down low with you

C# D
Give you my disease
A G
Collar bone, hot neck
C# D
open mouth and sweet teeth is calling me
A

A D A
We're moving like it isn't funny
D A
Outside it's sunny
E A
inside we're making a storm out of you
A D A
I'll leave the knife right in the honey
D A
This isn't money
E A
but we're just richer than anybody else
F Bb E

F
than everybody else
F Bb
who's trying to break into love
E

and just steal it all

A

Roll out skinny

D A
