

'ALL IS FAIR'
from This Marauder's Midnight lyrics by Gabriel Rios

You won't find me staring at no picture walls But looking in a mirror that holds nothing at all Oh coz I still see her looking Yeah I see her looking still Singing come inside take all you want You will not get your fill Wearing nothing but my own eyes and she she makes me watch
Minnesota state lines on the inside of her arm Fly away to heaven might as well end up in hell Coz chances are you'll be sitting there thinking of me still of me still

All is fair in love
She know all is fair in love
All is fair in love
She know all is fair
So what am I to do
coz I see my demise
every time i look at you

She know all is fair in love
She know all is fair
So what am I to do
coz I see my demise
every time i look at you

Go and trample over mountain tops yeah she said
Go and wallow in your sea
Go and wear your crown of reasons Ain't that nothing but a swarm of bees
And I know that coz I put it there so you'd remember me remember me

She know all is fair in love
So what are we to do?
coz there is nothing but the best for us to loose and don't you know that all of it is fair enough...

So go and write me a song not too short not too long

If you got one to tell go and ring us a bell You know the one that I've been thinking of
And you can call it all is fair enough...
